Speakers

Kristine Clay – Outreach Coordinator Dumb Friends League

303.495.4741 and KClay@ddfl.org

Founded in 1910, the Dumb Friends League, based in Denver, Colorado, is the largest independent, nonprofit community-based animal shelter/humane society in the Rocky Mountain region, caring for thousands of pets annually and accepting lost and relinquished pets, as well as hundreds of equines.

Eileen Lambert – Founder and Director Colorado Pet Pantry

303.818.0618 and eileen@coloradopetpantry.org

The Colorado Pet Pantry is partnering with local Food Banks to leverage clients that are already vetted (reducing administrative work) and participating in human food bank services. In addition, because the Colorado Pet Pantry will supplement human food banks with pet food, the human food banks will have more confidence that their food and donor dollars are affecting humans and not being passed to the families' pets in times of hardship.
